◆ Show thinking

Excellent! Thank you for providing your details. I've taken all the information you shared and completely customized the interactive resume template for you. Hemant's information has been removed, and it now showcases your unique skills and projects as a Blockchain Developer.

Here is your personalized interactive resume.

I've updated all the sections with the information you provided.

To make this perfect, I just need one more piece of information. As you can see, I've left a placeholder in the Education
